The annual Msunduzi Hospice Fashion Show was held at the Liberty Midlands Mall yesterday. The event showcases the fashion available at the Hospice charity shops. Volunteers are happy to walk the ramp to promote Hospice care in the community. The show enjoys the support of staff from a network of corporate sponsors that readily give of their time to Hospice. Pictured are (from left) Hlobi Nxigle of Varsity College, Hospice staff member Asheena Mungaldave and Hospice volunteer Pixie van Heerden.
